

Violist Brett Deubner is one of the most accomplished violists of his generation. Inspiring worldwide critical acclaim, the Newark Star-Ledger commented "There is a burning intensity to Deubner's playing, and a refreshing variation in the color of his viola tone." Vienna's Doblinger Press "Klang Punkte" has joined in these accolades by describing his performances as "Virtuoso and sparkling."

A native of San Francisco and a graduate of the Eastman School of Music, Mr. Deubner has inspired the dedication of over 16 new concertos for viola, and numerous sonatas and chamber music compositions. His solo engagements include performances with the Knoxville Symphony, the New Jersey Symphony, the North Shore Philharmonic, Bachanalia Chamber Orchestra, the Astoria Symphony, the Bucks County Symphony, and the National Symphony Orchestra of Ecuador.

An active chamber music collaborator and guest at music festivals, Brett Deubner has given master classes throughout North and South America and Europe. Summer appearances include performances at Caramoor, Roundtop, Kent-Blossom, Norfolk, Sitka, Cape May, Juneau, Kiev, Heidelberg, and Quit festivals. Brett is the founding violist of the Elements Quartet, the Halcyon Trio and Duo Fresco. He has collaborated with members of the Tokyo, Vermeer, Colorado and Chicago quartets, as well as the Eroica and Claremont trios.

Brett Deubner serves on the faculty of Temple University's Boyer School of Music and Dance in Philadelphia. He is also the Concert Artist in Viola at Kean University.

A message from our President

Among the many missions of our Club is enhancing life in the borough. There is no better way to fulfill this task than by providing the community with good music.

We are proud this year to present not just a single performance, but an entire concert calendar. Those of you who had the pleasure of attending the two concerts offered last spring have already experienced the joy of hearing fine music in our beautiful Georgian Room.

The space was clearly designed with chamber music in mind. Thanks to Glen Ridge resident and concert violist Brett Deubner, the Club will be the venue for "Music and More", a series of five performances featuring a range of classical music experiences.

Although the WCGR has provided the space for this series, revenue from ticket sales and donations will be used to cover the cost of the artists. We hope that you will consider supporting this program not only through your attendance, but also by an additional contribution to Music & More.
